

Becky Bloomsfield: The Missing Piece

Synopsis

Ever since Mum died life has been hard for eleven-year-old Becky Bloomsfield, but everything gets turned upside down when Dad brings home his new girlfriend, Posh Penny!

Not only does Becky feel like her mum is being replaced, but Dad no longer seems to have time for her either! Everything becomes so much harder when she is accused of stealing and falls out with her best friend Cassie.

Will Becky get her dad and her best friend back? Or has life as Becky knew it changed forever?

About the Author

Cherry Cobb is an author from Somerset, England. She has two cats and a kitten that like to sit on her keyboard when she is trying to write. When Cherry isn't writing or daydreaming she can be found underneath several balls of wool. She has won several poetry competitions, attributing her success on her wild and vivid imagination.

Scheduled to be released in September 2021

Key Selling Points

- Female lead character.
- Engages with real life issues, e.g. family bereavement.
- Raises awareness of teen mental health issues.

Comparable Works

Books by Jacqueline Wilson

Books by Judy Blume

Books by Cathy Cassidy

PR, Media and Marketing Opportunities

- Becky Bloomfield: The Missing Page will be marketed and publicised alongside two other brand new Candy Jar YA novels, I was a Teenage Spy and Something I Should Know.
- Newspapers and magazines will be contacted to promote the release.
- If the pandemic allows Cherry will be touring schools to promote the book.

CANDY JAR